MOKENA SEWER PROJECT BECOMES REALITY—After many years of talk and planning the village of Mokena has at last launched work on a complete sewer system. The program not only calls for lateral and trunk line sewer mains but also a treatment plant to dispose of the sewage. This is the first of the communities in the area to heed the demands of state health authorities that sewer mains be installed. The area is becoming too crowded for the use of septic tanks as a means of disposing of sanitary wastes, state officials point out. Sewage from Tinley Park, Frankfort, New Lenox and Mokena contributes to the pollution of Hickory creek, the state claims and it is endeavoring to clear up these waters. The picture here was taken last Thursday night when Mokena officials officially broke ground.

Wm. Lockwood, Dies on Coast; Rites Saturday

William Lockwood, 83, a resident of Mokena and New Lenox for many years, died suddenly during the night of Monday in his home in Santa Cruz, Calif.

Born Feb. 27, 1875 in Chicago the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lockwood, he was employed as chief clerk to the auditor of passenger traffic of the Rock Island railroad with offices in the Englewood station.

He was united in marriage, in Chicago, to Lottie Kirby and in 1913 the family moved to Mokena, where they lived for many years. Both he and his wife were ardent and faithful workers in the Methodist church in Mokena and New Lenox to which village they later moved. His wife passed away in 1941 and in 1946 Mr. Lockwood and his sister in law, Elizabeth Lockwood, of Lincoln Estates were united in marriage. He was a member of the Methodist church and the Mt. Joliet lodge No. 42 AF&AM. He had a kind disposition and enjoyed being helpful to all.

Surviving is his wife, Elizabeth, two daughters, Mrs. Ruth Clyde, Arcadia, Calif., Mrs. Marion Carlson, Riverside, Calif., a sister, Mrs. Martha Hall, Lexington, Ky., one grandchild, two nephews, William Lockwood, Lincoln Estates and Leslie E. Lockwood, Seattle, Wash. A son Marvin died two years ago.

The body will arrive at the Hirsch chapel in Tinley Park Saturday morning where services will be held that afternoon at 2 o'clock with the Rev. Ben F. Day of the Frankfort Methodist church officiating. Burial will be in Memorial Park cemetery at Orland Park.

Big 3-Day Affair At Mokena Largest Event of Its Kind In Area

Girl From Denmark Will Attend School At Lincoln-Way Next Year

Lincoln-Way high school is to have a student from Denmark.

Ella Juul Jensen, who will be 18 in October, is to arrive in August preparatory to entering school in September—as a senior. She will be graduated with the remainder of the class next June.

Miss Jensen will be one of 38 foreign students to attend high schools in the United States next year and her coming has been sponsored by the Lincoln-Way Student Council.

Dieken, and Mrs. Foster, of the Lincoln-Way faculty; the Rev. Ben F. Day, of the Frankfort Methodist church; Frank Goetsch, president of the New Lenox Lions club and building engineer at Lincoln-Way, Miss Ardaugh, Mrs. William Semmler, publisher of The Semmler Press, Inc. and Supt. A. Hunter Chapman, an ex-officio member. Officers of the Student Council for the next school year are, James' Gast, president; James McGuire, vice president; Miss Ardaugh, secretary, Larry Surges, treasurer, Norma Hedrich, parliamentarian and Robert Breidert, reporter.

Carefully Screened

Foreign students that come to the United States are screened carefully first and that it is difficult to be chosen is evidenced from the fact that the 38 who are coming to the United States this fall were selected from some 500 applicants.

A letter sent on to Lincoln-Way from Ella Juul by the committee in charge gives something of her aims and background.

She studies piano and voice—classical—but has a liking for what she calls "civilized jazz," particularly the records of Erroll Garner, pianist who plays entirely by ear. Ella Juul also likes paintings and architecture and plans to continue her schooling and eventually become a secretary or a teacher of French and music.

"I am the eldest sister and have two little sisters in the ages of fourteen and eight years," she writes concerning her family. "We have the same room for ourselves (there is a part for everyone) but we agree very fine. My parents have a little car and in the summer we take to the beach where we bathe. If the weather is not good for bathing, we take to one or another sight and see it. Then we sometimes go in the cinema, but only if there is a good film."

The family lives in town now but formerly resided on a farm. While in the country Ella Juul attended what she calls a "middle school," but now that the family lives in town she has become enrolled in the gymnasium, as the high schools are known. This particular institution happens to be a boarding school for boys but it is co-educational in that girls who live in the town are permitted to attend. In the school she had left Ella Juul found "teachers and pupils rather dull" but things were different at the gymnasium. She described students as "kind and funny . . . and on friendly and intimate terms with the teachers."

Eager to Visit U. S.

Ella Juul is a committee member and secretary of Baldrich—the gymnasium-union—which brings painters, authors, humorists and other artists to the school. Following the lectures by these notable the committee members have an opportunity to meet and talk with them at teas.

Ella Juul has traveled a little in Sweden but the people and nature of the two countries are so much alike that "it was not the big adventure," she writes.

"I want to come to the United States," she wrote, "because I would like to study how other nations live far away. Then it would be good for me to learn the language. I am very curious."

Mokena will be host to some 2,000 visitors this week-end plus some 800 Boy Scouts.

The occasion is a camp-out, the largest ever held in the area.

Mokena Memorial park will be turned into one big camp. The Scouts will begin arriving tomorrow, each troop with its tents and camping equipment and by nightfall the park will resemble a tent city.

The camp-out is to run for three days, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Troops will begin checking in at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon according to those in charge, and will be coming from all parts of the Louis Joliet District, which is bounded on the northwest by Plainfield, the northeast by Mokena, the south by Manhattan and the west by Troy. New Lenox and Mokena troops, of course will participate.

Latest figures show that 591 Boy Scouts will be here for the affair, 69 men, 10 Scout commissioners, 39 Explorers, six Order of the Arrow for a total of 614. Then on Saturday some 200 Webelos Cub Scouts will arrive to spend the day and evening, so the Scouts present will number around 800.

Everything is in readiness for the affair and those in charge are now sweating out the weather. All are keeping their fingers crossed against rain and wind.

Parents, relatives, friends and persons who are just interested in scouting will be attracted by the affair and Mokena will be jam-packed with visitors.

One of the stellar attractions will be the chariot races Sunday afternoon on the fifth-mile oval in Memorial park. Troops have been busy for weeks in building these machines and the boys count on getting real speed out of them.

The program for the three days appears on page 2 in this issue. It includes such competitions as rope work, fire building, compass reading, tent pitching, making fire with flint and steel, tracking and taking part in the campfire ritual.

Inter-patrol events are scheduled for Saturday afternoon between 1 and 4:30 o'clock.

Persons interested also are invited to attend the campfires Friday and Saturday nights.

Potluck is planned for the midday meal Sunday for the scouts, their parents and invited guests.

Troop 40, of Mokena, is planning something special in the way of food for their guests but are keeping the menu secret. Trophies will be awarded to the first three to finish in the chariot race and three prizes will be given for the best rustic entry ways, set up by troops on their campsites. Mokena's mayor, James Marti, and Charles Swanberg, president of the park board, will present the awards.

Members of the committee in charge of arrangements are, Henry Plate and Henry Reeds, of Joliet, co-chairman; Robert Woltz, Lockport, unit administrator; Jack Mansell, Joliet, camp set-up; James Loeffler, health and safety; Loyal Miller, Joliet, judging camp site; Gaylor Bale, Joliet, registration; Robert Cameron, Joliet, judging field events; campfires, Friday night, Louis Peyla, Joliet; Saturday night, Edward Vollmer, Plainfield; Bill Sandiford, Joliet, Order of the Arrow attendant; Arthur O. Omland, Mokena, host unit; Henry Reeds, training post; Philip Lindahl, public relations and William Keir, institutional representative.

Property Owners Can Designate Point of Entry On Lots For Sewer

Work on the foundations of the Mokena sewage treatment plant has been held up, the village board learned Tuesday night, by a strike of the iron workers.

This craft has the job of the forms where the concrete placing the reinforcing goods in is poured.

Robert Hamilton, village engineer, told the board that he had been informed by those familiar with the situation that the difficulties are expected to be settled soon.

In the meantime work can go forward on the sewer installations. In this connection the village board urges property owners to aid the crews by placing a stake, marked with a "Y", at the point where they wish to have the main enter their property.

Engineer Hamilton said that it might not be possible to follow the stakes in all instances but that whenever possible entry to a lot would be placed at the point designated.

Fred Steinhagen, in charge of general maintenance for the village, has been appointed to serve as inspector on the sewer project. Another man will be hired to take over Steinhagen's other chores.

Rudolph Engelhardt, 276 Carpenter street, appeared before the board to ask that a water main be installed to serve his property and that of some neighbors, all of whom now are getting their supply from a private line that is too small for the job.

Mayor James Marti told him that while the village did not have the money this time to install the main a fund was built up for the purpose.

"We will add water mains just as fast as surplus funds build up in the water account," the mayor declared.

The board signed the necessary papers giving the Public Service division of Commonwealth Edison a 50-year franchise. Other communities in the area have made the same agreements. The papers were presented by Sidney Westby, manager at Joliet.

Donald Davis, of the Northern Illinois Gas Co., appeared before the board to urge that all persons getting building permits which will necessitate excavation to get in touch with the gas company before starting work.

The gas company will have a man in Mokena all the time the excavating work for the sewer is going on, it was said. Persons digging by hand are not so apt to break a gas pipe, Davis said, but power diggers cause pipes to crack or break with resultant danger from leakage.

A building permit for a new home was granted Steward Shoop and formal issuance of a permit for the commercial building now under construction on Wolf road, south of the Hunter Foundry, was made to Ervin Friant. The fee on the home permit was $17 and $74 on the commercial building. Fees of $5 each were collected on four other permits, one to Dr. P. T. Demus for remodeling the former Oswald home on Midland avenue, which the doctor purchased recently; one to John Williamson, for remodeling; one to J. Pfrommer for an addition to his home and one to Will Tuttle for an addition to his garage.

The board has set July 1 as the hearing date on the petition of Dr. Demus to amend the zoning ordinance to permit the erection of a one story structure at Wolf road and Bryant to serve as offices for professional people. The hearing will be held in the village hall at 7:30 p.m.

The board appropriated $250 for use by the Civil Defense set up. The village board members will serve as an advisory board for the Civil Defense body and as such took an oath of allegiance Tuesday night.

Anthony Dina, civil defense director and Ray Bisgrove, assistant director, attended the village board meeting and apprised the members of the various pieces of equipment and machinery that can be purchased from surplus by the civil defense. Cars, trucks, typewriters and many other items are available from time to time.

The civil defense program is not set up just for wartime emergency, Dina pointed out, but also serves in peacetime in the event of disasters.

Kay Halvorson, Judy Mackenzie Win Top Honors

One hundred and twenty-five seniors at Carl Sandburg high school will receive diplomas at commencement exercises to be held tomorrow night in the school auditorium.

John E. Grinnell, dean of Southern Illinois university at Carbondale, will give the commencement address.

Because of the size of the class in relation to that of the auditorium each graduate has been limited to eight tickets. It is expected that the parents and friends of the seniors, plus the officials member of the school and those others taking part in the program, will fill the auditorium to capacity.

The diplomas will be presented by Mrs. Emma Creason, a member of the Sandburg faculty, who is retiring with the close of school after a quarter century of teaching.

At the Honors Night program Monday, scholarships were awarded and announcement made of the valedictorian and salutatorian. Kay Halvorson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Halvorson, 9850 145th Place, Orland Park, is valedictorian. She compiled a four year average of 3.976 to rank as top graduate.

Salutatorian is Judy Mackenzie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Mackenzie, 143rd street, Orland Park. Judy's four year average was 3.90.

Scholarship Winner Miss Halvorson was also chosen as recipient of the Andrews Scholarship.

This scholarship carries a stipend of $1,000 to be used during her freshman year in college. She plans to attend Lawrence college, Appleton, Wis. Miss Halvorson plans to become a high school teacher.

Miss Mackenzie and Gary Stanton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Stanton of 12632 73rd Court, Palos Heights, were awarded PTA scholarships which amount to $250 each and are to be used during their freshman year.

Miss Mackenzie plans to enter Southern Illinois university where she will take courses to fit her for a career as a teacher. Gary, who plans to become an electrical engineer, will go to school at Illinois Institute

Return to Former Size Newspaper

"We have decided to return to our former format—which carries eight columns, 20 inches long, instead of five columns, 16 inches long as in the case in the tabloid."

We like the appearance of the tabloid—as do many of our readers, but the five column width is unbalanced and creates difficulties in make-up. It is too rigid a structure. The eight column page is decidedly more flexible in presenting the news and pictures and will eliminate many carry-overs.

We believe the 8-column paper will serve the reader and the advertiser better, hence, the decision to return to it.

We also are reducing the width of the columns from 12 ems to 11½ ems. An em is a unit of measure in the printing trade and is about one-sixth of an inch. Reducing the column width lets more "light" into a page by providing a little more white space. This is easier on the eye and makes for easier reading. We hope you like it.

If at first you don't succeed, try, try again. Then quit. No us being silly about it!

of Technology at Chicago.

Each year the two top ranking members of the junior class are selected to lead the graduating seniors in the procession and recessional at the commencement ceremonies.

Two boys were chosen this year, Eric Johansen, son of Mrs. Sylvia Johansen, 9524 Eighty-eighth ave., and Robert Stellwagen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harwood Stellwagen, Orland township.

They have the highest scholastic rating in the junior class. They appear in the graduating exercises in the capacity of marshals.

THE TAX BELL TOLLS . . . for YOU!

In electing congressmen this fall it is to be hoped that the people will defeat those candidates whose records, backgrounds or utterances put them in the ranks of the free-wheeling wasteful spenders.

There are elements inside and outside of congress—either through ignorance or design—who would spend us into bankruptcy. People just can't seem to remember that the money the government spends must come from their pockets. There is no other source for government funds than the people.

There are many persons too who are not much concerned over big federal spending because of an erroneous belief that citizens in the higher income tax brackets are paying the freight.

Figures actually show that the high incomes provide only a small fraction of income tax revenues—even the rates, up to 91 per cent, come close to confiscation in the top brackets. The extreme rate gives the average taxpayer the feeling that he is "getting off easy" by contrast.

Har-de-har-har! If one may borrow from Mr. Jackie Gleason's patter.

About 75 cents out of every federal income tax dollar is paid by people with taxable incomes of $6,000 or less. And 81 cents of every income tax dollar comes from those whose taxable income is less than $10,000.

High-bracket taxpayers have had it; they can't be squeezed much more. Corporate taxes must, in the end, be paid by consumers.

Remember this when you go to the polls next November to those senators and congressmen.

Remember that when federal spending goes up—and don't ever forget this—the tax bell tolls for you!

ous to see the famous nature of Arizona with the Indiana, the Falls of Niagara, the Empire State building and other of the numerous sights." At the time the letter was written she had no idea that she might be selected.

"I know that I have little chance of coming to the United States," Ella Juul concluded her letter, "but when the occasion came, I made up my mind to try. If I should be so lucky to be among the selected, I hope to learn a lot about America."

And students at Lincoln-Way will have an opportunity to learn something about Denmark and the Danes.

Robert S. Kaliske, Mokena Resident, Succumbs at 73

Robert S. Kaliske, 73, died in his home on Parker st., Mokena May 30 following a lingering illness.

He was born Sept. 27, 1884 in Plattsmouth, Neb., the son of Isaac and Lelia Simpson Kaliske. The family moved to Chicago in 1893 where Robert later was employed as a railroad accountant. He later entered the realty business with his brother Hayden. He went into semi-retirement in November of 1955 and then moved to Mokena. He was a member of the Banner Lodge No. 924, AF&AM in Chicago.

In addition to his brother he is survived by his sister Camilla with whom he made his home.

Funeral services were conducted in a Chicago funeral chapel Monday with the Rev. William Rieman officiating. Burial was in the Fairmont cemetery.

Helen Sheridan was one of two winners in Will county of the UNICO National Scholarship given by the Joliet chapter. The other scholarship went to a student at Joliet Catholic high. It is worth $250 in cash and will be used by Miss Sheridan when she enters Marquette university at Milwaukee. She intends to become a teacher. She also was runner up in the American Legion award given out by Commander Daniel Hecht of the Bobzin-Swinford post at Frankfort. Two girls tied for first in the Legion award, Barbara Niemann and Judy Eden, the latter of New Lenox. First place for boys for the Legion award, went to James Stauffenberg and second to D. Stanton Korista. Korista also won the Phi-Chem Society scholarship. The Phi-Chem group is made up of Lincoln-Way science students and the scholarship is worth $45 a year for four years providing the recipient continues his schooling. Charles Otto presented it.

David McGuire received the Chemistry award at the hands of Neil Hardy, head of the science department, and also the Arion Music Award from Harold Doering, president of the Band Boosters. McGuire not only is highly proficient in science and music but he also was a member of the wrestling team and participated in track.

Ronald Fredin was winner of the Industrial Arts Award, presented by John Flynn, a student; the Betty Crocker Award, presented by Mrs. Mildred Foster, head of the Home Ec. Dept., went to JoAnn Harris, of New Lenox; Robert Van Rheeden, head of the agriculture department, presented the DeKalb and State Farmer Awards, the former to Charles Mark, of Frank-

McGuire and Korista also received National Honor Society scholarships, worth $50 each, with Mrs. Della Hussey, society sponsor, making the awards. The D.A.R. Award was given to Carol Werner by Mrs. James McIntyre, of Joliet, regent of the DesPlaines Valley Chapter. Miss Werner also received the Art Award, presented by Kenneth Kinney of the Lincoln-Way faculty. The Math Award, presented by Ralph Christison, of the faculty, went to Kenneth Weber.

Members of the senior class presented a program, with the class president, Garrett White serving as master of ceremonies. Kenneth Weber gave the welcome; Henry Barnett introduced the seniors; Sheila Bennett gave the class history; the senior mixed chorus sang; the band played, Kenneth Soderlund sounded the farewell and Judy Schleuter made the presentation of the class gift to the school, a panel to carry the names and numbers of basketball players and a space for the next game to be played. This will be placed in the gym, near the scoreboard and timer.

At the graduation ceremonies Tuesday night the Rev. Erich Bizer gave the invocation and Dr. Ralph Wright, of the faculty, the benediction. The school band played, the Sophomore Girls' chorus sang. Supt. Chapman introduced the 108 members of the class and A. H. Krusemark gave out the diplomas. The speaker, Don Bolt, newsman, commentator, world traveler and lecturer, was introduced by Mr. Van Rheeden. Education—real education—is the key to success for the immediate future, he said. Bolt has traveled extensively in South and Central America. He pointed out that while those

Death Claims Anthony Otis, San. Dist. Head

The death of Anthony Otis, president of the Metropolitan Sanitary District of Greater Chicago, as announced Tuesday morning came as a great surprise to residents and officials of Tinley Park and Orland Park who had worked closely with him in the planning of the sewer systems in their villages.

His death occurred in Billings hospital Tuesday morning where he had been a patient for two weeks. He had been under treatment for a recurring blood condition which had been kept under control by medication for nearly 30 years.

Born in Chicago Aug. 25, 1898 he lived there all his life and was prominent in the Republican party. He was a leader of the Lithuanian bloc within the Republican party and a great civic worker.

He was educated in the Chicago public schools, received his Ph. B. degree and J. D. degree from the University of Chicago. He was admitted to the Illinois bar and practiced law, specializing in real estate, foreclosures and reorganization. He served in the navy in World War II.

He directed the fight to gain increased water diversion from Lake Michigan into the Illinois waterway in order to effect a cleaner stream and sustain fish life.

He was first elected to the sanitary district board in 1946 when he became the minority leader of the four Republicans on the board. He won a majority on the board in 1950 and was elected its president. He had been reelected president annually since then. He was re-elected to a second term as trustee in 1952 and was seeking election again this year. He was well qualified for his work in directing the sanitary district and his loss will be keenly felt.

Whether Gov. Stratton will fill his position by appointment, which power he has, has not been decided.

He is survived by his wife, Verna, a daughter, Mrs. Jean Bartuska of Skokie, and three grandchildren. His home was at 7000 South Shore dr.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Friday in the Nativity B.V.M., church, 69th st. and Washtenaw ave.

Honor Custodian Of Orland School

One of the high lights of the commencement exercises of the Orland Park grade school this week was not concerned with the pupils but with the chief custodian of the building, Ivar Benson.

Mr. Benson has been a resident of Orland Park for more than a score of years—20 of them as custodian at the school. During that time he not only has taken excellent care of the property but also has had time to keep an eye on the youngsters.

That he is popular with the pupils is evidenced by the fact that they dedicated the school annual this year to their friend, Mr. Benson.

Kenneth Halvorson, president of the Orland Park school board added to the occasion by presenting Mr. Benson with a watch to show the board's appreciation of his fine work.

Supt. Norbert Jerling also joined in lauding the custodian and expressed the hope of teachers and children that he will be around the school for many years to come.

Set Hearing Date On Forming Fire District in Homer

A hearing will be held at 10 a.m. June 30, in the county court of Will County before Judge John C. Cowing, on the formation of a fire district in Homer.

The proposed fire district will be composed of the area bounded by Will-Cook rd. on the west to the Lockport town line on the east, New Lenox township line on the south and 143rd st. on the north. The district will include all but 11 sections of Homer township, six of which are already in the northern Homer fire protection district.

4-H'ers and Prize Cattle Participate In Joliet Dairy Day

Two area 4-H'ers will participate in the "Dairy Day" program being held in Joliet today. They are Dennis Helenhouse of New Lenox and Peter Winker of Frankfort whose prize milking cows will be included with other breeds in the parade, transported in pick-up trucks.

Denny's animal has held the grand championship of all breeds in Will County 4-H shows for the past two years. Peter's animal was reserve grand champion at last year's 4-H show.

Milton Geuther of Mokena, is manager of the American Dairy Association, at the Joliet office. Only nine other counties in the state equal Will County in the amount of dairy products produced and sale of dairy animals.

The program being held to encourage use of more dairy products will include a milking contest and the selection of a Miss Dairy Princess. A parade will feature the Princess and her court, and horses and riders. School bands will provide the music.

Hospital Volunteers Expedite Recovery Of Mental Patient

Registration for the first orientation class for volunteers should be made by June 13, at the Tinley Park State hospital, with Mrs. Alma Young, supervisor of volunteer service program, phone Kellogg 2-4355, extension 21. The classes will be held at the hospital June 18 and 19.

In issuing the plea for volunteers, Mrs. Young explains that the volunteers perform services which are of immeasurable help in expediting patient recovery.

These services include visiting with patients, writing letters for them, distributing books and magazines, assisting the staff in activity therapy programs of all kinds, games, music, arts, crafts, sharing interests and hobbies with patients, whether it is music, books, travel, current events, sports, gardening, homemaking, stamp collecting, and many others; also sharing fun with patients such as walks, picnics and fishing.

Tinley School Health Council Makes Progress

The Health Council of the Tinley Park public schools, which was organized last November, has drafted and adopted its own rules and procedures, and set up goals for the physical and mental welfare of students and parents. Operating committees have been named.

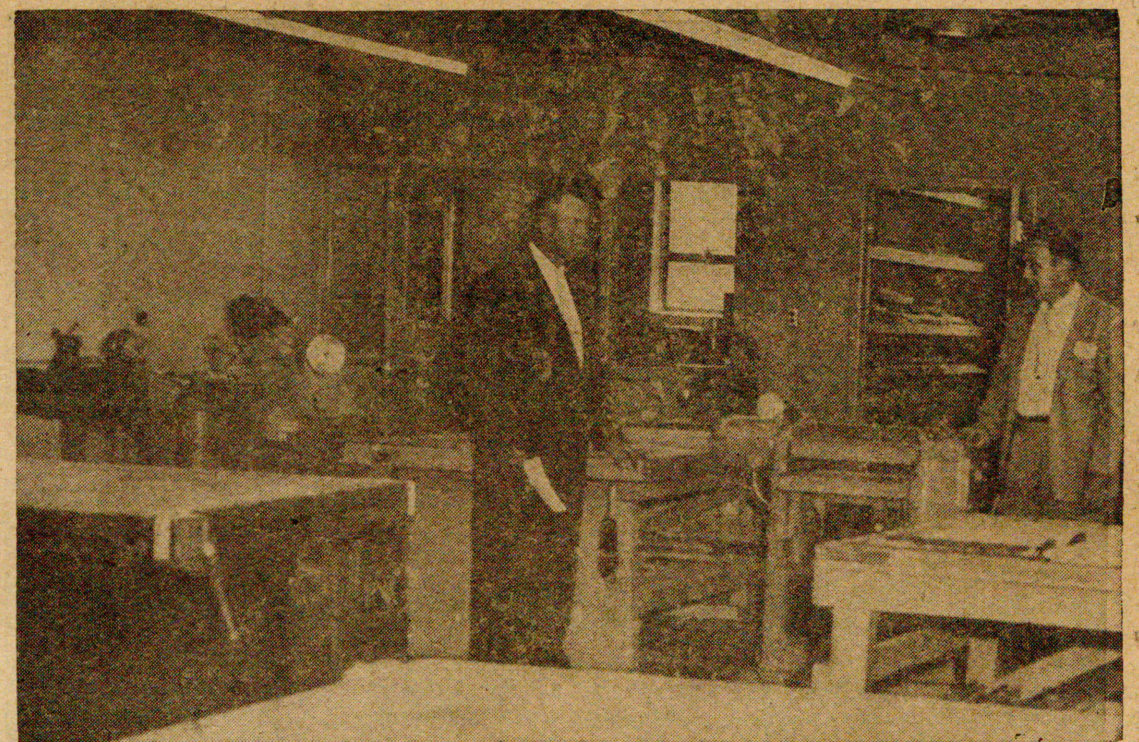

The Council since its inception has worked toward better understanding of nutrition and physical education programs. A policy has been formed regarding student participation in physical activities and parents and others have been so advised. All members of the medical profession in Tinley Park have been advised of the program and their cooperation has been requested.

The board of education has adopted a Council recommendation requiring a yearly physical examination for all staff members and personnel. A similar recommendation may be made for students.

First graders, it has been decided, will not be required to have inoculations at the time of registering, so that they do not associate the schoolroom with the shot. Parents and children now have a "get acquainted" period that should make the first school days more pleasant.

The great deal of work in setting up the program, requiring revision until eventually put into effect, has been minimized by the time given by the volunteers on the health council.

A big project planned for next fall is a comprehensive survey being prepared to study school classrooms, buildings and grounds to provide a guide for future planning. Council members are cooperating closely with administrators to measure educational facilities against authoritative standards being adapted to the community.

The senior vice president, Mrs. David DeVault, reported on the Teen canteen activities. On May 22, a very interesting program was planned for the teenagers, which included a guest speaker from the Cook County juvenile office.

LINCOLN-WAY HIGH SCHOOL students don't have to travel far to have a picnic. There is a sizeable pond, trees and grassy open spaces at the back or north end of the campus that make a dandy picnic spot, as evidenced in this picture. The pond was made last year at little cost and serves zoology classes as a laboratory as well as a scenic center piece for picnics.

Barnet cemetery Memorial observance last Sunday. G. C. Frazer presided and also read the 13th chapter of Romans at the Gettysburg address. Robert Burch accompanied on his guitar for group singing and also for Mrs. John Hollister and daughter Linda, who sang a duet.

James Frazer spoke briefly on the business affairs of the Cemetery association.

There will be a meeting of the trustees of this cemetery at the home of the secretary, Mrs. Lola Storm, Friday evening June 6. Wives of the board members are invited to attend this meeting.

The Amos Conrad family of Chicago were Decoration week-end visitors in the George Burckham home.

Phillip Dobias is ill at his home on Creme rd.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Carlson were hosts to a group of friends from Joliet and New Lenox at a picnic supper Friday evening. Mrs. Kate Vancil, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vancil and daughters Jane and Ruth, of Downers Grove, were Friday visitors in the home of Mrs. Ira Anderson and also called on other relatives.

Mrs. Lola Storm was guest of honor at a birthday celebration in the home of her daughter Mrs. Walter Nelson on Decoration Day. Miss Myra Reed, Mr. Nelson and their sons Roy and Lee were also present. The birthday was Wednesday.

Patrons and friends of the Northwest Homer Volunteer Fire dept. are reminded that Friday evening, June 6 at 8 o'clock is the time, and Goodings Grove hall, 143rd and Bell road, is the place of the annual games and drawing for the benefit of the department. Chairman is Raymond Bromberg.

Automakers Problems

Damon Stetson of the New York Times reports that "The automobile industry is facing a period of crucial decisions." There are three main reasons why: the growing popularity of the small economy car, a trend which may force the Big Three to enter this field; lagging new-car sales; the wage and other demands which Walter Reuther's UAW will make on the companies during new contract negotiations.

Education Aided

Educators have described corporation support of higher education as being of "revolutionary proportions." Financial aid to the nation's colleges and universities last year exceeded $100 million. Much of the money comes from big corporations, and yet smaller business contributions were $25 million more than in 1954, $60 million above 1950.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The supremacy of God, Spirit, will be set forth at Christian Science services Sunday.

Scriptural readings in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "God the Only Cause and Creator" will include the following from Psalms (33:6): "By the word of the Lord were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth."

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (170:22): "Spiritual causation is the one question to be considered, for more than all others spiritual causation relates to human progress. The age seems ready to approach this subject, to ponder somewhat the supremacy of Spirit, and at least to touch the hem of Truth's garment."

The Golden Text is Psalms (145:10,11): "All thy works shall praise thee, O Lord; and thy saints shall bless thee. They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power."

Police League to Start Play Sunday

Wet Grounds Delay Opening Last Week-end

Wet grounds delayed the opening of play in the South Section of the Cook County Police League last Sunday and as a result Tinley Park's entry, which was slated to meet Orland Park, will play a twin bill with that team on the last date of the season, Aug. 3.

Weather permitting the teams will go into action this Sunday, June 8, with Tinley host to Matteson. Game time is 2 p.m. on the Memorial Park diamond, 171st street, east of Oak Park ave.

The Markham Colts will play the Oak Forest Squirrels at Oak Forest and the Markham Rockers will take on Orland at Orland Park. The Midlothian Blues and the Robbins Mascots are to meet at Robbins while the other Robbins team, the Yanks, will play the Midlothian Reds at Midlothian.

In the last of the pre-season encounters, May 28, the Tinleys dropped a game to Oak Forest, 7 to 4. Tinley was held to one hit, a double by Jerry Romanenghi in the fifth. The two lads who shared mound duties for Tinley, Romanenghi and Vern Sloan, gave up 10 hits.

Louis Kent, who started on the hill for Oak Forest, allowed but one walk in the three innings he worked. Elliot relieved him in the fourth and in that inning Tinley scored two runs on two walks, a hit batsman and a sacrifice fly by Sloan. In the fifth Tinley's Ron Koning drew a pass and came home on Romanenghi's two-bagger. The latter scored Tinley's final run on a passed ball.

Oak Forest scored five runs in the third inning on six hits and scored the other two in the fifth.

The game was called at the end of the fifth because of darkness.

All of the league games this summer will be played on Sundays and starting time will be 2 o'clock. The schedule, however, is subject to change as to date and time by agreement. Any twilight games will begin at 6:30. Teams more than half an hour late in reporting for play can be defaulted.

In all cases National League baseball rules will prevail.

Tattersall to Make 1958 Debut on Joliet Oval

Bob Tattersall, veteran driver from Streator, will make his first appearance of the 1958 season at the midget auto races in Joliet Memorial Stadium Saturday night.

Tattersall, who won the track championship in 1956, was to have competed last week-end when rain washed out the 7-event program. Tattersall has been one of the leading competitors at the Joliet oval for several years. Last summer he narrowly missed in his bid for a second straight title when George Sellery of Chicago won. Sellery also will be back in the lineup Saturday night, as will 1952 champion Ken Rubright, who since last year has moved to Rock Falls from Lyndon, Ill.

Newcomer Bob Harkey of Charlotte, S. C., 1957 NASCAR national midget auto racing champion, also is expected to supply plenty of competition. Others in the field Saturday will include Tom Arndt of Frankfort, Paul Kerber of Elgin, Don Chapman of Aurora and John Meyers, Chicago.

There will be four heat races, a handicap, 15 lap semifeature and 25 lap feature. Time trials will begin at 7:30 p.m. and the first race at 8:30 p.m.

Baseball Season Opens In Orland On Sunday, June 8

Baseball for the youth of Orland Park will start the season Sunday, June 8, when the police team plays host to Tinley Park in the opening game.

The Babe Ruth and Little League teams will travel out-of-town on Monday and Tuesday for season openers and on Thursday and Friday play home games.

The Youth Association will meet in the Firehouse tonight, June 5. All fathers are urged to attend.

Small Fry At Mokena to Begin Play on Monday

It's "batter up" and "play ball" at Mokena on June 9, when the Small Fry play their first game. The Babe Ruth team plays on June 10.

Help is needed to make final improvements to the diamonds. A couple of truck loads of sand to work into the clay will help in smoothing the surface of the diamonds. Officials are asking if anyone can arrange this.

They appreciate and wish to thank Jim Surovick for new bases, bats, helmets and practice balls.

Following is a schedule of games:

Bettenhausen Gets Nice Purse In Memorial '500'

Tony Bettenhausen, of Tinley Park, world renowned as an automobile race driver, finished in fourth place in the annual Memorial Day "500" at Indianapolis last week-end and as a result shares in $17,000 of prize money.

Tony was running in first place for 24 laps to bring in a tidy sum of prize money before he was overtaken. He ran in second place for a number of laps and was never worse than seventh at any time in the race.

Bettenhausen was driving for Jones & Maley, DeSoto and Plymouth dealers of Indianapolis. The usual set upon the division of prize money in the "500" is for the owner to take 60 per cent and the driver 40. And the state of Indiana gets a share too—one per cent in the form of an income tax.

Tony escaped the first lap jam-up involving a dozen cars and resulting in the death of Pat O'Connor.

Tony will continue racing thru the season, appearing at Milwaukee in the 100-mile feature race Sunday but has changed his mind about driving again in the 500-mile race he inaugurated in Italy last summer. He had planned to drive there again this summer but has elected to remain in the states.

He has a farm that keeps him busy when he isn't racing and as a matter of fact is as much at home on the hurricane deck of a tractor as in the seat of a racing car.

Bremen, Evergreen Pk. Each Place 4 on Conference Baseball Squad

Four players each from Bremen and Evergreen Park High school baseball teams were selected as conference best by a vote of coaches in the Southwest Suburban conference. Two players from Rich and one each from Sandburg and Oak Lawn make up the remainder of the all-conference squad.

Players from Bremen who landed berths are Jerry Miller, pitcher; Jerry O'Neil, 1st base; Gary DuBois, 2nd base; and Bob Rodger, left field.

The four from Evergreen are F. Rice, catcher; Richard Schaffner, pitcher; Tom Seidel, shortstop; and William Dapkus, right field.

Rounding out the conference team are Bart Zeller, catcher; and Gary Elliot, center field, both of Rich; Richard Aird, pitcher; Oak Lawn, and Neil McGee, 3rd base, of Oak Lawn.

Top-Dressing Speeds Meadows' Comeback After First Cutting

FIVE "dividends" farmers can obtain from top-dressing their legume-grass meadows with fertilizer after the first hay cutting were listed by the Middle West Soil Improvement committee: 1—Meadows make a quicker comeback. 2—The fertilizer helps boost hay yields that follow. This can mean lower costs and higher profits per acre and per ton. 3—Hay yields that follow will be larger, due to the plant food. This can mean lower costs of production and higher profits per acre and per ton. 4—Fertilized hay is generally of higher quality. It is more nutritious and has a larger protein content. 5—The top-dressing adds to the life of alfalfa by supplying the legume with the phosphate and potash it needs for vigorous growth. Regular additions of fertilizer are insurance for keeping pastures at a profitable, high-producing level for long periods, the committee says. Agronomists in a number of Midwestern states say it pays to add fertilizer that will provide 40 to 60 pounds per acre of nitrogen, phosphate and potash.

Producers Get 14¢ Premium on April Milk

Producers shipping to Federal Order 41 handlers (Chicago and suburban market) will receive 14 cents per hundredweight above the April order price of $3.40 for base milk of 3.5% fat delivered in the 70-mile zone from city hall, Chicago, according to H. L. Edwards, director of sales for Pure Milk Association.

This will make the base price paid in this area $3.54 per hundredweight. Excess price will be $3 per cwt. The 14 cents per hundredweight premium over the base price is the result of Pure Milk Association's negotiated premium of 25 cents per hundredweight on Class I milk with handlers.

Base milk is that portion of a farmer's production in the months of March, April, May and June which does not exceed his average production in the preceding September, October, and November period. Excess milk is production over and above the base average.

Producers under Order 41 shipped 453,754,871 pounds of milk in April. Of this, 352,522,672 pounds, or 77.69% was base milk, and 101,232,199 pounds, or 22.31% was excess milk.

Edwards stated that the payment on Class I milk sales was paid by handlers into the super-pool operated by the Association. The total dollars received was then divided by total producer deliveries of base milk. This resulted in an additional payment of 14 cents above the order price to all producers.

The April 1 reduction in support prices reduced the basic formula or manufactured milk price by 13 cents per hundredweight.

The May Class I price under the order dropped from $3.60 per hundredweight in April to $3.47 in May. However, the price negotiated by PMA on Class I will raise this to a level of $3.72.

The May Class II price is pegged at the March level of $3.38 per hundredweight, also as a result of the negotiation; otherwise it would be at the level of the order price of $3.22 per cwt.

The Class I and II prices for June will not change substantially from the May level, Edwards said.

An Automobile Recession, Says Noted Economist

"To me this is an automobile recession," writes J. A. Livingston, the well-known business and financial analyst. This reflects the fact that the heavy drop in automobile sales is the darkest spot in the economic picture. It throws its shadow a long way. It is largely responsible for pushing steel production down to less than half of the industry's capacity. It is felt, directly or indirectly, in a long list of enterprises, large and small.

Mr. Livingston also points out that the sag in auto sales can't entirely be attributed to a lack of money. Personal income, despite the recession, is only slightly down from the peak. Savings are increasing, as are the sales of savings bonds. And, he writes: "The dollar, long scorned in an inflation atmosphere, is now prized."

The most debated economic question of the hour, therefore, is "What's wrong in Detroit?" There are, needless to say, many assorted answers, some of which are in direct conflict. But just about everyone is sure that something basic has gone awry. And the volume of criticism directed at the principal automobile makers has grown apace in late months, rightly or wrongly.

Small Cars Popular

Many critics now think that the industry's policy-makers grievously misjudged the American appetite for ever-bigger, ever more expensive, ever flashier cars. In support of this argument they point to the steady growth in imports of small, economy cars. Sales of these, it is true, amounted to only five per cent of the U. S. market last year, or 200,000 units. But that's twice as many as were sold in 1956, 10 times as many as the 1950 score—and the prospect is that the current year will see another increase in the face of the sharp drop in sales of American makes. Another significant fact is that the Rambler, the small American car, has shown improved sales.

Tide, the advertising magazine, offers three reasons for depressed car buying. American people, it thinks "... aren't ready to go into hock for an outdated status symbol; they have other things they want to spend their money on; and many of them just don't care for the product they're being offered. ... That "status symbol" matter may be highly important. It used to be that the difference between the lower-priced cars and the higher-priced cars was the difference between a bungalow and a mansion. Now more and more talk is heard to the effect that all cars are practically alike, and that you can hardly tell one from another on the road.

Want Other Things

There is reason to believe that the proportion of the consumer dollar spent for cars has been due to drop and to stay down. People want TV and hi-fi sets; they want boats and trips abroad; they want all manner of labor-saving devices; they want more recreational facilities at home, ranging the gamut from barbecue outfits to patios. So it seems only natural that they'll make their cars last longer and that, when replacement time arrives, they will look for a vehicle that costs less to buy, operate and keep in running order.

There is no end of speculation as to what the big-three auto makers plan to do to combat the trend. So far, these 1959 models will be bigger and makers haven't said much. The more powerful than ever and, perhaps, more expensive. But more and more observers of the Detroit scene think that the economy idea is beginning to take on weight. The U. S. automobile industry has had a great and well-deserved reputation for vitality and for the ability to change when change is in order. The universal hope is that the industry will read the signs aright—whatever they may point to and pull triumphantly out of its slump.

Lots of people are afraid the next war will be fought in outer space. As for us, we can't think of a better place.

Krapf Answers Questions On Assessments

Several questions, and their answers, relative to assessment of personal and real property, have been prepared by Will County Treasurer Floyd H. Krapf who by virtue of his office is ex-officio supervisor of assessments. The questions and answers were released by the treasurer as a means of providing information to the public and are carried here as a matter of public service.

"1. Why are the assessed values on the personal property schedules prepared by the assessors so much higher this year?"

Answer: The assessors are re-operating in our plan of equalized and uniform assessments. Each year the State Department of Revenue applies a multiplier to our assessed values. By equalizing now the county will be in line for a factor of one or a multiplier of one and a fraction.

2. What advantages will this give the taxpayers of Will county?"

Answer: First, this being the quadrennial year, your real estate is also reassessed and all these assessed values are published in your local newspapers so that you may actually see the valuation placed on your property which will be used for computation of your tax bills payable in 1959. Real estate values are figured at 55% of actual value and you can therefore more readily determine the correctness of your assessments and if it actually is in error, you then should immediately contact the Board of Review so that it can be reviewed before your tax bills are prepared.

Second, the possibility of receiving a multiplier of one is worth this all out effort so that all the confusion regarding an understanding of your tax bill may be eliminated. It will also eliminate a great deal of work involved in computing taxes.

3. Will my tax bills be higher next year as a result of this program?"

Answer: In some areas they may be higher and in others lower. In areas where valuations are considerably increased I shall so inform those taxing bodies so that they may be guided accordingly in making their tax levies so that taxes should not necessarily rise because the valuation is raised.

4. What about the 40% reduction in personal property tax?"

Answer: I have recommended that the assessors make this reduction on their books this year which will in turn reflect on your tax bills in 1959.

After three years of observation I am convinced that this reduction should be made because under the procedures followed each year taxes continue to rise and those who pay carry the heavy burden whereas a reduction will spread the tax burden and, we hope, increase payments without costly collection procedures.

The reduction will apply to automobiles, trucks, trailers, house trailers, farm personal property and furniture."

Business and Finance

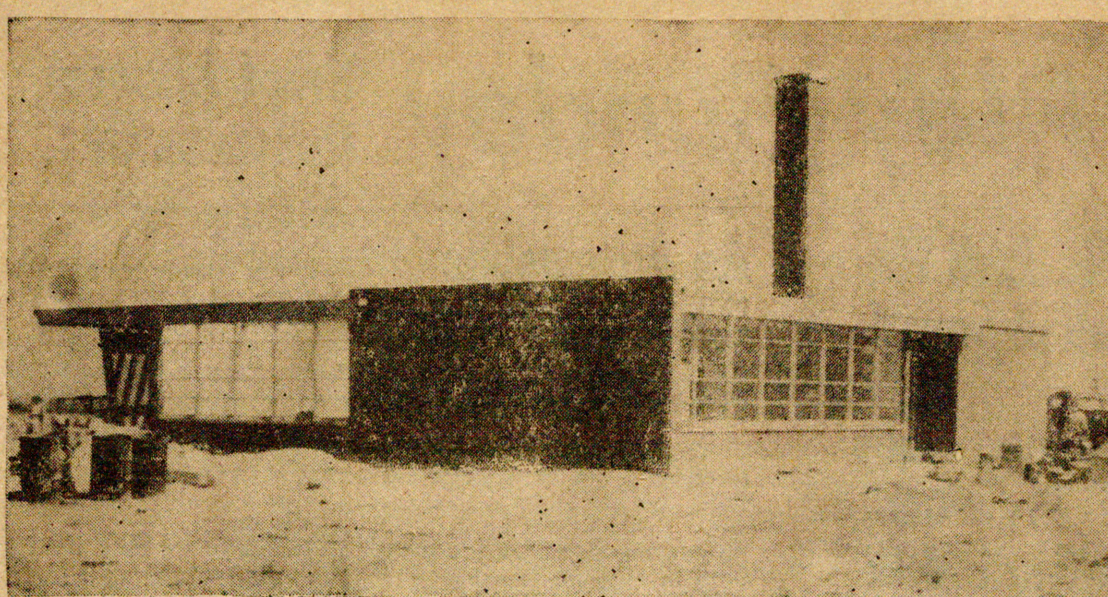

By MAURICE P. ANGLAND

There is an old adage in securities markets which states "never fight the tape!" This refers, of course, to the ticker tape which registers the trading on the exchange and generally refers to the New York Stock Exchange particularly. This admonition also refers to the general trend of the market rather than action of individual stocks since such individual stocks represent many and varied industries whose business fortunes differ in any given period.

General market trend, however, is an expression of business opinion by large numbers of informed individuals and organizations. The opinion is backed by their use of investment funds in either buying or selling securities. The stock market seldom reflects current conditions, but rather reflects business conditions expected a few months ahead. The stock market anticipated the recession some months before it was apparent in actual sales or employment figures.

Large numbers of investors are close to individual companies and able to judge that company's future rather accurately. The composite action of these investors create the stock market trends. Every successful business man expects his own business to show some periods good, some booming, and some slow. Yet some of these same business men expect other businesses (as represented by their common stock) to either be constantly rising or falling. The one sure thing as J. P.

ORLAND CENTER SCHOOL nears completion but unless the residents of the district go to the polls June 14 and approve an increase in the educational tax rate from 71 to 92 cents per $100 of equalized assessed valuation the school will not be of much use directors point-out. Another teacher must be hired if the school is to operate, officials stated, and so a special election has been called. At the regular election in April only 28 persons voted and the outcome on the rate increase was a tie, 14 to 14. Since the proposal failed to carry it was defeated. Directors hope for a different outcome this time. The polling place will be located in the school building at 94th ave. and 151st street, and will be open June 14 from 4 to 7 p.m. (Marvin Smith photo)

Jackie Scott to Tour Europe With Symphony

Many Mokena friends will be interested to learn that Miss Jackie Scott, of Mississippi City, Miss., will travel in Europe this summer with the South Mississippi Youth symphony.

Jackie is the daughter of Lester W. Scott and his wife, the former Wanda Hall of Mokena and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don C. Hall. The Halls live in the southern city but also spend their summers in Mokena where they have a home.

Jackie Scott

Jackie, who plays the french horn, has been a member of the local school band and when she entered high school, continued her band work, which band became a member of the above mentioned symphony. This is not a surprise to the Halls friends in Mokena as Don C. Hall and his family had an orchestra and played with their show when they were "on the road."

It is also interesting to know that Jackie's mother was president of the PTA in Mississippi City, and also of the high school Gulfport district, PTA.

There are 50 young people of the state in this Youth Symphony which is the outgrowth of a string program started in a number of southern Mississippi schools under the extension division of Mississippi Southern college five years ago. Roger di Giulian is the teacher of the class.

Study Flood Control Plans for Ev. Park and Oak Lawn Areas

(CNS)—Plans to end the immediate flood threat in a 25 square mile area surrounding Oak Lawn and including Evergreen Park, Alsip, Chicago Ridge, Merrionette Park, and Worth are now under study by a committee of Metropolitan Sanitary District trustees.

The project involves cleaning, deepening, and widening Stony Creek for 10 miles at an estimated cost of $1 million. The creek flows into the Calumet-Sag Channel.

Horace Ramey, chief district engineer, said Thursday the plans include the building of a drainage ditch paralleling the Wabash railroad in Oak Lawn to aid the flow into Stony creek. The ditch, 3,000 feet long, would be able to carry 1,000 cubic feet of storm water per second, Ramey added.

He also proposes to dredge Stony Creek to carry 1,100 cubic feet of storm water per second into the Calumet-Sag Channel near 86th avenue.

Ramey said the program would handle any flood emergency in the area.

Only persons who have been dead for ten years can qualify for election to the Hall of fame.

The Bremen Beat

By EDWIN BRUELL

"Our purpose in the dean of girls' office is to act as intermediary between home and school in order to help students," Geneva Schultheis, the dean of girls at Bremen Community High school, stated in a recent interview.

Miss Schultheis, who holds a master of arts degree from the University of Illinois, teaches two classes in social studies. She spends four periods of the school day in counseling with the girls in their personal problems and in handling any discipline situations which may arise. The other two periods of her day are utilized chiefly in parental conferences.

Another large part of her work in which she has contact with many of the girls, consists of sponsorship of the Girls' Club at Bremen. Approximately 250 girls are members.

Asked about the frequency of disciplinary cases, Miss Schultheis stated that less than three to four per cent of the girls are referred to her office for discipline. Of this number fewer than two per cent are repeaters. Further, of this group fewer than one per cent are found to be unable or unwilling to adjust to school routine.

From her years of experience, Miss Schultheis made the observation that "it is vital for students to learn respect for authority, since situations requiring control by authority occur all through life—in sports, on the highways, on the job and, in fact, in all relationships with people in society."

"It is also necessary for students to learn respect for the rights of others as individuals and as members of the group."

She noted that girls have a particular problem of social acceptance and that "the personality and character of the girls count more than do outside adornments."

The dean of girls at Bremen stressed the necessity for a girl's preservation of her reputation, emphasizing the importance of the feminine influence in setting the tone for the group in society.

Approximately 350 persons attended the junior senior prom recently held at Bremen Community high school.

Decorations were in a spring-time motif with an outdoor mural done by Faith Carpenter, Jack Heil and Mike Field. A garden and representations of candlelight and moonlight were highlights of the dance with music by Ronnie Rogers and His Orchestra.

"All those who attended seemed to enjoy themselves, and it was a financial success," said Delores Johnson, one of the faculty sponsors and chaperones.

The following officers were elected in the Girls' Club at Bremen Community High school: Caroline Sorn, president; Jeanette Rizzuti, first vice president; Ann Hopman, second vice president; Donna Bonaker, secretary and Barbara Brown, treasurer.

They will take office in September of this year.

Faculty sponsors are Genevra Schultheis and Marion Imbery.

Dr. John R. Heller, director of the National Cancer Institute, states that research scientists are on the verge of major breakthrough in the war against cancer. One may be a vaccine producing immunization.

How many of these electric helpers have you added since 1947?.... asks LITTLE BILL

a b c d e f g h i j k l m

You're an average family if—in the postwar years you've added six new electrical appliances. Shown here are a few typical examples.

This, of course, is why you're using far more electricity nowadays than you did just a few years ago. And why life is a lot easier and more comfortable. But the surprising thing is, that of all the things you buy today, electricity has gone up less than almost anything else.

So, while your bill may be a little higher, electricity is actually doing nearly twice as much work for the money now as it did years ago.

See how little it costs to run each of these electric helpers.

a—Your refrigerator—3¢ a day. Keeps foods fresh as well as frozen.

b—An electric range—7¢ a day. (That's all it costs to cook 3 complete meals for an average family.)

c—Waste disposer—only 1¢ a week. Ends garbage smell and nuisance for good.

d—Automatic dishwasher—1½¢ a load. Washes and dries dishes sparkling clean.

e—Electric mixer—for just 2¢ it will whip up 12 cakes and frosting, too.

f—An electric clock—1¢ a week. Keeps time accurately and inexpensively.

Other appliances shown include: (g) exhaust fan—blows away heat and cooking odors for 1½¢ an hour, (h) electric coffee-maker—1¼¢ for 8 cups of delicious coffee, (i) undercounter electric water heater—brings you 2½ gallons of steaming hot water for a penny, (j) ceiling fixture (150 watts)—gives good working light for 3 hours for just a penny, (k) automatic toaster—18 slices for 1¢, (l) electric fry pan—breakfast for a week (for a family of 4) for only 1¢, (m) vacuum cleaner—cleans for a whole hour for just 1¢.

THE BREMEN BEAT

By EDWIN BRUELL
"The fundamental work of the dean of boys' office is to help students adjust to high school and to aid them in their personal problems. Thus, we serve as an intermediary between home and school."

In this way Lee Cox, dean of boys at Bremen Community high school, characterized his duties in a recent interview. Cox, who holds a master's degree in guidance and personnel work from Indiana State Teachers' college, besides teaching two classes a day in American history, spends three periods a day in personal counseling and in handling discipline cases. The other three periods of his school day are spent in conferences with parents and outside agencies.

He believes in a policy of firmness and in treating each case as an individual problem. He added that the authority of the teacher must be upheld, since, according to law, the teacher stands in loco parentis (in place of the parents) and that, under his authority, the teacher may use any disciplinary measures that a parent may use.

Asked about the incidence of disciplinary cases, the Bremen dean stated that fewer than five per cent of the students are ever referred to the dean. Of this five per cent, only two per cent are repeaters. From this small group "only one per cent or less turn out to be unable to adjust to the regular school routine, through disinterest in school work or from never having learned to accept personal responsibility for their own actions. A few also have not learned to accept discipline from adults."

Cox pointed out that the school operates on the philosophy that if a student is a chronic misbehavior, he may need to be removed from school through suspension or possible expulsion.

"Students who get in trouble chronically should not be allowed to interfere with the rights of other students to learn," Cox said.

He added that there is no set period of suspension, since each disciplinary case is dealt with as an individual problem.

As a general procedure, the first time a student is referred, the school tries to point out the error of his ways by depending on his sense of fair play and decency to induce him to cooperate.

If the student is then unable or unwilling to cooperate, the parents are called in for a conference, an ordinarily effective measure.

In case of failure of this method, referral may be made to agencies outside the school, Cox said, such as the Institute for Juvenile Research or the juvenile department of the Sheriff's bureau.

The dean declared that, in general, no person is suspended or expelled without a prolonged attempt to secure his cooperation through counseling or conferences.

However, if he breaks some of the standard rules, such as the one prohibiting smoking on or near school grounds, he is suspended from school. Early in the year the students are made aware of the school regulations.

Cox pointed out that the local school boards of Illinois are autonomous agencies and that they have the power to determine the attendance of any student, further that they may expel a student at any age if need be.

road, just east of Cicero ave.

Farmers will have an opportunity to take a look at three dwarf corn varieties in the near future. These varieties were planted on the Fred Niemeyer farm in Rich township. The plot is located along Cicero avenue just north of Flossmoor road.

Lawn weeds can easily be killed with weed killers. 2-4D will take care of most broad-leaved weeds such as plantain, curled dock and dandelion. Phenyl Mercuric acetate will kill crabgrass. It may take several applications. Follow the directions on the container. Crabgrass chemicals should be applied by middle June. Use Disodium Methyl Arsenate at the rate of two ounces per thousand square feet of lawn. Two applications at weekly intervals are needed.

You might also be interested in taking a look at the oat variety trial on the same farm. The plot is located on Vollmer

Please remember that just getting rid of the weeds in your lawn will not make a beautiful lawn. Weeds appear only when the grass is not doing well. So, fertilize your lawn in early spring and early fall. Do not clip grass closer than 1 1/2 inches and when watering, soak the soil to a depth of six inches.

The main purpose in inoculating legumes is to insure nodule formation. With an efficient strain of bacteria. You stand to gain three ways. Foremost among these is an increase in yield and profit. The crop will obtain part of its nitrogen supply from the air, thus adding to soil nitrogen resources. Ana last, a benefit of increase protein content in both hay and seed.

We have received one or two reports of corn field infestations with wireworms and cutworms. Examine the corn field very carefully every two or three days for the next two weeks. In case of cutworm damage, use one half pound of dieldrin per acre over the row. In case of wireworm or billbugs use 1 1/4 pounds of Aldrin or Heptachlor per acre. Apply insecticide with one nozzle directly over each row, and cover by using a harrow or rotary hoe. If the corn is too tall, 6 to 10 inches, cultivate throughout the soil towards the corn. Try to harrow or cultivate, whichever is applicable, within an hour after applying the spray

Farmers may notice some leaf scalding on oat plants. In most cases this is due to the warm and dry weather experienced during the past three or four weeks. Early in the Spring when the weather was cool, the weather was ideal for oats, however, in the change of weather conditions, the plants developed a shallow root system which brought on this leaf scalding. Rain would help the oats recover. A continuation of the dry weather could bring about considerably more damage. It is all up to the weather man.

Postoffice Has Word to Say on Shower Bids

Everybody knows that "April Showers bring May Flowers," and everybody knows that May showers bring June brides. But not everybody knows that invitations and announcements bring consternation to the postal service.

Postmaster L. E. Brown of New Lenox says that this is not because the postal service dislikes weddings, or showers, or receptions or any of the other functions which have to do with getting married. As a matter of fact, postal workers everywhere are anxious to contribute whatever they can to success of these fine occasions. But sometimes those most interested in getting people happily started in life make helping very difficult for the postal service. Take shower invitations for instance. When the date, the hour, the place the shower is to be held, the name of the prospective bride, and other pertinent information is shown in "handwriting," or typewriting, the first class rate of postage must be applied, regardless of whether the invitations are in sealed or unsealed envelopes. If shower invitations are wholly mimeographed, printed, duplicated, or otherwise wholly reproduced by machine process, they may be mailed in unsealed envelopes at the third class rate of 2c each.

Printed announcements which are of odd size or shape, or which are exceptionally large or unusually small, must bear the minimum first class rate of postage regardless of whether they are done by machine or hand.

The postal service is eager to carry the glad tidings of marriage and its many associated functions quickly and accurately to all concerned, wherever they may be. If you have questions about how to make up this important mail, please help us to help you by calling Postmaster Brown or staff at New Lenox 8273.

Will Pave Forest Preserve Parking Lot In Bremen Township

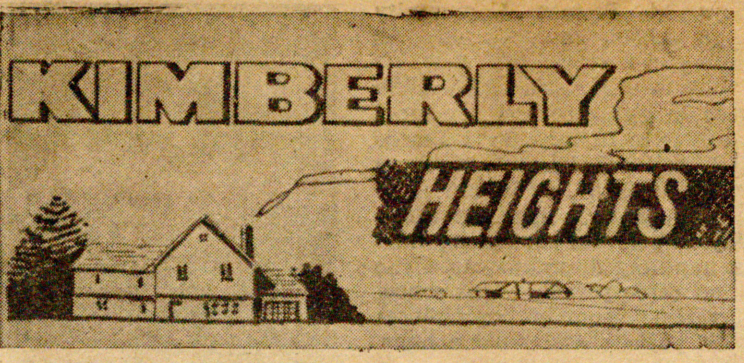

(CNS) — Forest Preserve District has awarded a $20,529 contract for the first stage of work involved in providing automobile parking space in Conkey Forest, 135th street and Central road, Bremen township. R. W. Duntzman Co. was given the job for earthwork and drainage.

The project will provide parking space for 300 cars. A contract to pave the section will be awarded next year, said Charles Sauers, general superintendent.

Contracts also were awarded for construction of picnic shelters at various forest preserves, including four for Dan Ryan Woods, 85th street and Western avenue. The shelters have a concrete floor and roof.

Some of the residents left Kimberly Heights for other parts over the Memorial Day week-end among them the Charles Phillips family, who went up to their summer home in Michigan, where Chuck is learning to water ski; Mrs. Lillian Schueler who went with her sister by train to visit a niece in Minneapolis; and the Harold Rennings, who drove to Indianapolis to visit relatives there. Those who stayed at home seemed to be enjoying the holiday, with backyard barbecues, gardening, and I noticed some spirited badminton and croquet games, which old fashioned pastimes are again becoming quite popular.

Mental Illness Responds To Treatment

(This is the last of a series of articles dealing with auxiliary services used to aid patient recovery in State mental hospital.)

By ANNE RODGER
Mental illness is similar to any physical illness, except that it affects the mind and nerve system, yet some people still regard it as a family disgrace and go to great lengths to hide the fact when a member of the family is so affected. Mental illness should bear no stigma as the mind is just as subject to illness as the body, yet people may blame the man for displaying symptoms of sickness rather than the disease which causes them. In fact, some of the reactions of mental illness are very similar to physical illness.

The State of Illinois has employed the best doctors available to staff its mental hospitals. As its consultants, it has some of the nation's leading specialists, many of whom examine and treat patients requiring special attention.

The social workers, psychologists, occupational and recreational therapists, and many other specialists are qualified professionals especially trained for their jobs.

These staff members comprise the team that treats the patient.

Quiet and Orderly

During the recent Open House at the Tinley Park State hospital, visitors saw for the most part that it was quiet and orderly. Many patients were busy and behaving like normal persons. Staff members are trained to meet difficult situations when patients become disturbed, by using tact and skill.

Most mental patients, however, are easily handled when cared for by skilled employees.

The staff of the Tinley Hospital are available for consultation service to anyone in the community who desires it and the hospital facilities may be used in any emergency.

At the present time all of the patients are transfers from other state hospitals, but as the institution expands, direct patient admittances may be made.

It has been explained in previous articles how the family care program can be utilized in the community.

Another program in effect puts patients, who have recovered sufficiently, to work thru a job-placement program. This is a stepping stone in the rehabilitation process. Patients are placed on conditional release, but remain under hospital supervision until completely recovered.

Before a patient is placed on a job, the social service worker and employer discuss thoroughly the patient's ability to handle the job and the hospital staff stands ready to help with advice and counseling.

Vocational Rehabilitation

The vocational rehabilitation program fits patients for work upon return to their communities and aids their integration in jobs after discharge.

Within the past ten years the number of patients who have received absolute discharges from state hospitals has increased more than 30 per cent.

Much has been learned in recent years about treatment for mental illness and what causes it. While there is still much to be learned, new techniques have proved very effective.

Today, the efforts of hospital psychiatrists to bring about the recovery of mental patients are being supplemented by those of other hospital personnel.

Overcrowding in state mental hospitals is gradually being lessened as more patients are being discharged thru improved treatment methods and more facilities for their care are being provided.

The Tinley hospital attests to the efficient and humane treatment of mentally ill patients.

As the State has appropriated more money to hire more employees, the number of mental health service personnel has increased from 6,797 in 1948 to 11,551 in 1957.

Volunteers

The volunteers augment patient care with many extra services, ranging from bed care and spoon feeding of feeble old folk to outdoor activity for the younger active patients.

Anyone interested in any of the programs mentioned may obtain further information by calling David Baruch, chief of social services at the Tinley hospital. He will also be glad to speak before any group who desires it.

Local Youngsters Searching For Baseball Field

By MRS. ROBERT ANDERSON
Phone Fieldbrook 9-2857

Dads may wish to come to the rescue of hopeful youngsters by transforming some vacant property to a baseball diamond. What better way to spend the long summer days than a good old game of baseball for budding Big Leaguers! The yards are fine place to play, but a place to play ball would provide hours of active recreation.

Laguna will be blooming with dahlias this summer thanks to Henry Anderson who has been passing out bulbs to his neighbors. "Gretta Anderson" is the gourmet of the canine world; she prefers dahlia bulbs to dog food.

Christening

Paul Carey Donohue was christened at St. Michael's church in Orland Park Sunday, May 25. His god-parents were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Claxon. The son of Mr. and Mrs. William Donohue, he has a sister, Nancy Carol. Present were his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Donohue, Sr., also the following neighbors: The H. L. Woodburys, Miss Janine Nelson, the Robert Andersons, and Mrs. Al Karre.

Miss Janine Nelson was confirmed on Memorial Day at St. Michael church. Her 18 young cousins and their parents were dinner guests at her home Friday evening.

Miss Dorothy Snedden is recovering from a severe case of measles.

For the latest in fish stores, see Mr. Donohue who returned home Monday evening from a week's fishing trip near the Canadian border.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Anderson spent Memorial Day in Racine, Wisconsin visiting relatives.

Mrs. Clarence Claxon and daughter, Adrien, were recent house guests of Mrs. William Donohue.

The Henry Andersons entertained the following dinner guests Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. E. Dumm, the Robert Hunters, Mrs. M. Anderson of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Art Little, the Robert Andersons and son, Charles, and Mrs. D. Rueter of Custer Park. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ruddy and daughter, Phyllis Ann, of Silver Lake Dells visited with the family in the early part of the afternoon.

The Novaks who are formerly of New Lenox, also visited with his sisters and brothers, and their families, the Marcel Halik's, Jack Glades, Joseph Novaks, George Novaks, and the Charles Novak family.

Having lived at San Diego, Calif. for a number of years, they moved to Juneau, Alaska four years ago, and this is their first trip home since then. They left Saturday for Des Moines, Iowa where they will visit with her relatives, before going on to San Diego, to visit with their two daughters, Mrs. Judy Niemi and Mrs. Jean Streaor and their families. They plan to return to Alaska about July 4th.
